SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUB

Still Time to Order!

Our Scholastic Book Club is in full swing, and there's still plenty of time to place your orders! Students are bringing home their flyers this week, so keep an eye out for them in backpacks. This is a fantastic opportunity to explore a wide range of books with your child and choose a few to enjoy at home.

Not only is this a great way to encourage reading, but every order also helps our school earn free books for the library. Students have been busy helping to select new titles they'd love to see on our shelves—thank you for your support in making this happen!

There's still a week and a half left to order, so don't miss out! Visit Scholastic Book Club to browse and shop online.

Happy reading!
